

Theology Threads | Season 7: Episode 4 Notes | The Conflict of Compassion

Summary

It's Episode 4 in Season 7 of the Blueprint Of Wisdom! Compassion is not only a pillar of a life of wisdom but essential to the life of a Christian. The Bible speaks unapologetically clear on this. However, we've begun to add qualifiers to acts of compassion. We've attached strings and conditions. Have we strayed from the biblical intention of compassion? Let's take a deep dive into the text and examine what the word of God says and be honest about what it doesn't say. You won't want to miss this episode!

You can email us with questions at hello@theothread.com

Reflection Questions

Have you ever felt compelled to do something compassionate for someone? Give money? Acts of service or kindness?

Have you ever felt conflicted over the idea of giving to people in need vs people helping themselves?

Have you ever been in need? Has someone helped you during that time of need?

Has God placed anyone or anything in your life you are sensing him tell you to show compassion towards?

